WINES OF ITALY

ASTI

Region: Piedmont · Grape: Moscato Bianco

The official Asti D.O.C.G. (Denominazione di Origine Controllata e Garantita) is grown near the city of the same name, in Northwestern Italy. Sparkling Asti wine comes in two forms: the fully sparkling Asti and Moscato d'Asti, which is just gently fizzy, or frizzante. Both are made from the Moscato Bianco grape, which gives this dessert wine rich flavours of apricot and peach.

SUPER TUSCAN

Region: Tuscany · Grape: Tuscany Blends

They are among the most enthralling and diverse wines in Italy, yet there is probably no term in Italian wine that is more misunderstood than "Super Tuscan". Super Tuscan can be made in almost every form imaginable, from bone-dry whites to sweet reds and sparkling rosés. They have an astonishing depth of character, making them one of Italy's finest exports.

CHIANTI

Region: Tuscany · Grape: Sangiovese

Very dry, medium-bodied, moderately tannic red wine with a lovely tart-cherry flavour, mainly from Sangiovese grapes grown in the Chianti area of Tuscany. "Chianti Classico" is often the best.

PROSECCO

Region: Veneto · Grape: Glera

Prosecco wines are aged in large tanks with less pressure than Champagne, making Prosecco bubbles light and spritzy. Proseccos cover a wide flavour spectrum with their own classification system of Brut, Extra Dry, Dry and Demi-Sec. Prosecco is also an ideal aperitif as well as a perfect match for cured meat and fruit-driven dishes.

PINOT GRIGIO

Region: Northeastern Italy · Grape: Pinot Gris

Generally a light-bodied, dry and crisp white, with subdued aromas and flavours and no oakiness. Made from Pinot Gris grapes, usually in Northeastern Italy. Wines from Collio or Alto-Adige D.O.C.s (Controlled Origin Denomination) are usually the best.

BAROLO

Region: Piedmont · Grape: Nebbiolo

Dry full-bodied, magisterial red wine from Nebbiolo grapes in the Barolo area of Piedmont. It has complex aromas and flavours of strawberries, herbs and earth, as well as a firm, tannic structure. Drinks best at 10 to 20 years of age, depending on the producer.
